Remarks: Chuck: Here is the Thrift Shop problem again. It is not quite clear to me how the two contract employees were handled. If the expense of their salaries was directly chargeable on the books to the Thrift Shop, then we might have to rule that the funds should go to repayment of that expense. If they were some sort of general employees who merely spent some time working in the Thrift Shop so that there is no direct charge on the books to the Thrift Shop, maybe we can go
